'ADVANCE CARE PLANNING- IMPROVING OUTCOMES, IMPROVING CARE' PRESENTATION

Presenter: John McMahon, Clinical Nurse Consultant, Territory Palliative Care

John has a long history of work within Palliative Care, and a special interest in Residential Aged Care. He has worked for Territory Palliative Care in Darwin for the past four years and has experience as a Remote Area Nurse. John is aware of the issues relating to Indigenous health care and aging in the indigenous context. For the past two years John has been actively promoting Advance Care Planning throughout the Northern Territory, and has been involved in developing programs for Renal Services and Territory Palliative Care in the NT. He has extensive knowledge of the legal and ethical aspects of Advance Care Planning and the direction it is taking in the Northern Territory.
